Attention Motor Carrier: If the inspection indicates violations/defects on the driver and/or vehicle a signed copy of the inspection shall be returned within 15 days to the address shown at the top left of the inspection. An inspection absent any type of violation/defect does not need to be returned.

Motor carriers are required to keep a copy of this inspection on file for 12 months from the date of inspection (49 CFR 396.9(d)(3)(ii)).

NOTE: Drivers or carriers may challenge the accuracy or validity of a commercial vehicle inspection, including the issuance of an Out of Service Order, by contacting the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration (FMCSA) at: <https://dataqs.fmcsa.dot.gov>

If your citation for a fatigue and/or illness violation is dismissed by a prosecutor or judge for lack of probable cause, or you are acquitted of the charge, you can make application through the DataQ system to have the related out of service order rescinded.

The undersigned certifies that all violations noted have been corrected and compliance achieved with the Federal Motor Carrier Safety and/or Federal Hazardous Materials Regulations as applicable to motor carriers and drivers.
