

I DEWA PUTU EDDY MULYANA Staff waiter-breakfast lunch and dinner, safety No. 638-team leader on the Atlantic deck, been on board 7 months. Worked on the Majesty, then Norwegian Sky, then Norway. Has been an evacuation team leader on the Majesty.

Sunday morning was sleeping in his cabin. Heard the sound, then heard Code Alpha in the main galley, then heard Code Bravo in the Boiler room, then Code Bravo in the mess, then heard the horns, and wait directly to the emergency station, in the Atlantic Deck, Zone 6, and stayed there the entire time, waiting for the announcement.

His job is to make sure that people stay where they are supposed to stay, or to direct crew to the life boats. He did not see crew members at the time, except for one security member.

He did not see smoke, just smelled oil. Stayed at this station about 30 minutes, then went to the lifeboat, life raft station. On his team only two people, but they did not show up at the station. His emergency station is five decks from his. He did not go ashore.
