Ed Malinowski - [REDACTED]

According to 11/27/11 Sunday staff, N4599F arrived around 4pm+/- and reported an attitude indicator problem. Our hours are 8-5. When the staff left, the plan was to "overnight" a part and repair Monday morning. When I arrived Monday morning, I was informed that the part was not able to be shipped overnight and N59773 had been sent to CFJ to continue the mission.

I was informed of the accident Friday Dec. 2nd, when Ken from Trans North Aviation called regarding N4599F still setting on the ramp.

Please call or email if you have any questions.
Sorry about the delay
