

April 14, 2010

To whom it may concern:

When we purchased N612AZ it was configured for offshore / overwater passenger carrying operations which included a full custom interior and seating. We removed all items that were not required for fire fighting operations and at which time it's empty weight was similar to other S-61N's that we have configured for fire fighting operations.

David Wolf
Chief Inspector