

Railroad Switching Services

Pine Bluff Operations

General Notice 7-15

04-11-15

Please be aware of tripping hazards in the class yard and use caution when switching, walking or working in this area.

Daniel B. Robbins

President

Railroad Switching Services

Railroad Switching Services

Pine Bluff Operations

General Notice 6-15

04-11-15

Railroad Switching Services in Pine Bluff, Arkansas does not allow for the getting onto or off of moving equipment except in the case of an emergency.

Daniel B. Robbins

President

Railroad Switching Services

Railroad Switching Services

Pine Bluff Operations

General Notice 5-15

04-11-15

Muck boots or rubber boots are not allowed for our employees. You will wear a boot with a defined 1" heel, at least 6" in height, made of leather, and shall be made of leather. This boot will also be lace up and have steel toe protection. If you are having trouble acquiring the appropriate foot wear please contact Daniel Robbins for assistance.

Daniel B. Robbins

President

Railroad Switching Services

Railroad Switching Services

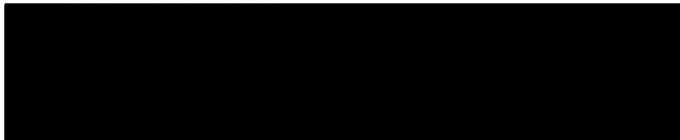

Pine Bluff Operations

General Notice 4-15

04-11-15

The crew phone may only be used when the locomotive is not in motion and when switching operations are not underway. If you need to answer a call or make a call stop all movements and utilize a red zone. No personal cellular devices may be used except in case of emergency or while at rest in the office.

Daniel B. Robbins

President

Railroad Switching Services

Railroad Switching Services

Pine Bluff Operations

General Notice 3-15

04-11-15

All railcars left standing no matter how long, must have a hand brake applied.

Daniel B. Robbins

President

Railroad Switching Services

Railroad Switching Services

Pine Bluff Operations

General Notice 2-15

04-11-15

Chokes, Skates, or Scotches are only to be used inside the Evergreen Plant fence where required by Evergreen Packaging. Hand brakes will be required at all times to secure unattended equipment.

Daniel B. Robbins

President

Railroad Switching Services

Railroad Switching Services

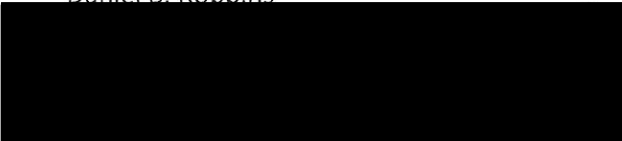

Pine Bluff Operations

General Notice 1-15

04-11-15

No crew will work greater than 12 hours on any shift without consent of the management. Place your job in a safe condition and stop all switching work before the 12 hours expires. If you have any questions please contact Daniel Robbins

Daniel B. Robbins

President

Railroad Switching Services

