

Can I tell you what happened?
~~We were~~ The pit turned on the heater. Terrible smell → he said that's how the smell. When we finally turned off, it stopped so that way. A rise of smoke from pipes. He was observing the pit

But we all thought we were going to crash. He threw the pit. pulling up but the top of ground

Chap - 1111

The plain must have rolled but as soon as it hit the ground, the plane had set on fire. We were all nearly ~~knocked~~ ^{blown} out by the smoke. I tried opening ^{the} emergency window (as we ~~did~~ ^{did} G. Garrott did) when we hit the ground I honestly thought we were dead.
 Can you have someone check my tip?
