Rick,

first parcel from Sportys is a GPS receiver for the Ipad.
Second from Lucid is a gas spring for the Lancair door
Third will be from AircraftSpruce with a 24V power supply unit.
I would appreciate very much if you could place it in your hangar.
Propably I will be Bend 12/26 for one week.

thank you very much
Alexander

Hi Alexander-

I've received two shipments for you. The first was the one we previously communicated about; and the second, is about a two foot long triangular shaped box (5"x5"x5") from Lucid International received about a week ago. Will there be a third delivery or is what you're referring to above, the second shipment already received here?

Also, would you like me to put these two boxes inside your plane(?) ... I'll be out of town from December 22nd through the 29th of December.

Thanks-
Rick

OK; thanks for clarifying. Perfect, all delivered then. I have put them in the hangar for you so there when you arrive.

Safe travels Alexander and hopefully will see you in early January before you head back to Germany.

No worries Alexander. I just received one today, and so that's a total of three (3) so far that have been delivered to me. Just want to make sure all are arriving as expected. It appears now I should anticipate a fourth delivery, I'll keep an eye out for it.

Remember too, I'll be leaving town this coming weekend (22nd) and then will not be home to receive anything until Monday, December 30th.

Thanks-
Rick

thank you very much. I will install the a/p servo by myself.
Steve Gibson should install just a TEE in the fuel line for a ferry tank.

I'm not sure if any work has been done on your aircraft or not. I will peek my head in the hangar and see if I can tell whether it's been worked on or if the aircraft has been moved and let you know. If I can track Steve down will also try to ask him about it.

Hi Rick,

thank you very much again.

All is well here. We have a beautiful spring time and had nearly no snow during winter. I am very busy now but I hope to get a week to spare to fly to Bend in May. How is your ATP proceeding. I hope you can arrange good weather for a $100 hamburger flight next time.

Hi Rick,

I am in town since thursday and working on the plane.
One problem solved, the next showing up.
Right now the autopilot tries to kill me.
Flying straight and level high speed my electric buddy pushes or pulls all of a sudden.
Very bad feeling, even worse that the autotrim is on his side.
I will meet RDD in Redmond early in the morning, begging for help.
