

Jim L. Stidfole II

Yorktown, Virginia 23692

Relevant Experience

October 2007— present	MH-60M SIQ2 Test Director U.S. Army Aviation Applied Technology Directorate, Fort Eustis, Virginia Managed a highly diversified team of over 35 personnel from eight government and industry organizations to support a multi-year, multi-state test effort and direct accountability of $140M of test assets. In CY2010 the SIQ2 test program flew 197 flights totaling 415 flight hours without accident and meeting all test objectives. Managed an annual budget of $3M.
June 2004— September 2007	YRH-70A Armed Reconnaissance Helicopter Test Director—Sensors U.S. Army Aviation Technical Test Center, Fort Rucker, Alabama Directed a high-profile, major defense acquisition developmental helicopter flight test program for target acquisition sensor system source selection. Served as the armed reconnaissance helicopter flight test program's experimental and standardization instructor pilot in a combined test team of government and industry test pilots & flight test engineers.

Licenses and Certifications

FAA Commercial Pilot —airplane —glider —helicopter	U.S. Army Standardization Instructor Pilot U.S. Army Instrument Flight Examiner U.S. Navy Test Pilot School graduate, Class #125, June 2004 Master Army Aviator designation
FAA Certified Flight Instructor —airplane single engine land and sea —airplane multiengine land —helicopter —instrument airplane and helicopter	Department of Defense, Top Secret Clearance (SSBI), October 2009

Flight Hours

4,533 Total Hours in 52 different aircraft
Flight Time Breakout (hours)		Military Aircraft Qualifications
Pilot in Command	3,955	MH-60L/M Improved Defensive Armed Penetrator
Night Vision Goggles	832	YEH/HH/UH-60 Blackhawk
Night Vision Systems	45	AH-64D Longbow
Night	446	OH-58D Kiowa Warrior
Actual Instrument	131	YRH-70A Armed Reconnaissance Helicopter
Cross-Country	1,201	OH-6 Cayuse
		UH-1H Iroquois
		C-12 Huron
		T-34C Mentor

Accomplishments

U.S. Army Aviation Safety Award; 2000, 2002, 2003
1-14th Aviation Regiment Instructor Pilot of the Quarter, Fort Rucker, Alabama; 2002
Order of the Spur, 7th Cavalry Regiment, Camp Stanton, South Korea; 2000
Distinguished Graduate, Initial Entry Rotary Wing Course, Fort Rucker, Alabama; 1994

Relevant Education

September 1988— December 1992	Texas A&M University Bachelor of Science, Aerospace Engineering GPA 3.257	College Station, Texas
----------------------------------	--	------------------------