Narrative:

The following is a synopsis of the information provided by Sharon (Missy) Gravitt in an e-mail correspondence.

The deputy sheriff reported that, upon his arrival, he made contact with Fred Myers. Fred was bleeding from the head, but was able to talk and seemed fairly coherent. Fred stated that he had been performing aerial stunts over the area from the nearby Big T airstrip. There was a local children's party nearby on Cody Trail, and he was performing for them. Fred said he clipped a tree as he was flying and lost control. Fred was able to get the plane across the road to the south side of Chestlehurst Road, just east of Cody Trail. Fred's plane then struck another tree and went down in the woods.
