I, the undersigned, make the following statement voluntarily, without threat, duress or promise of reward:

I was in the purser's office of the Cathlamet sailing from Washou to Fawcett. I felt like we were getting close so I stood up to make disembarkment announcement. When I peeked out the doorway to look out the window to see if we were approaching Fawcett. At this time, approximately 0815, I felt impact and braced myself on the bench outside the purser's office. I immediately started walking the passenger cabin to make sure everyone was okay. Everyone said they were okay. Another deck crew member ran by and told me to grab the medical bag from the purser's office, and bring it to the car deck. I did this and proceeded to ask passengers to step back from the damaged vehicle. — continued

I have read my statement as documented above (and, if applicable, on continuation pages) and to the best of my knowledge and belief, it is true and correct.
