

Main Pass Oil Gathering Significant Events History / Timeline

- January 1996 – CNG Oil Gathering Company, Centana Oil Gathering Company and Amoco Pipeline Company entered into a Development Agreement to pursue the joint development of an oil pipeline gathering system (Main Pass Oil Gathering) in the Viosca Knoll and Main Pass Areas, Offshore Gulf of Mexico. MPOG’s ownership evolution is below:

Owners / Transaction Date	Formation 1996	CNG to Centana Estimated 2006	Centana to PAM Acquisition Company 2014	Amoco to Panther 2016	Panther to PAM Acquisition Company 2017	PAM Acquisition Co to Third Coast Infrastructure LLC 2023
CNG Oil Gathering Company	33.3333%	0.0000%	0.0000%	0.0000%	0.0000%	0.0000%
Centana Oil Gathering Company	33.3333%	66.6666%	0.0000%	0.0000%	0.0000%	0.0000%
Amoco Pipeline Company	33.3334%	33.3334%	33.3334%	0.0000%	0.0000%	0.0000%
PAM Acquisition Company, LLC			66.6666%	66.6666%	100.0000%	0.0000%
Panther Offshore Gathering Systems				33.3334%		0.0000%
Third Coast Infrastructure, LLC						100.0000%
Total	100.0000%	100.0000%	100.0000%	100.0000%	100.0000%	100.0000%

Significant Events:

- October 1996 – 18” MPOG mainline between MP 225 platform and the MP 69 “A” terminal completed; first flow December 1996.
- October 1996 – 8” MPOG owned pipeline between VK 826 spar and the MP 225 platform completed; (out of service); first flow March 1997
- December 1998 – 10” MPOG owned pipeline between MP 281 and a subsea connection on the 18” mainline in MP 245 completed; first flow February 1999
- October 1999 – 8” MPOG owned pipeline between VK 823 and MP 281 completed October 1999; first flow December 1999
- October 1999 – 10” Anadarko owned pipeline between VK 915 and MP 225 completed; first flow November 1999
- September 2004 – Hurricane Ivan damaged MPOG 18” mainline in MP 69 as the result of lost pipeline separation at a location where an 18” Shell operated pipeline crossed MPOG. Temporary clamps were installed in October 2004 and a spool piece was replaced and pipeline was reinstated in November 2004
- September 2004 – Hurricane Ivan displaced, a portion of the 18” mainline in and near MP 144 without leakage. Displaced 7,125 ft of pipe was rerouted and relayed. Displaced pipe was replaced with new pipe in April 2006. BSEE approved Permit #16249958 to use same OD, WT and Grade approved November 2005
- June 2017 – 6” Arena owned pipeline between MP 123 and the 18” MPOG mainline in MP 144 completed; first flow September 2017
- July 2017 – 4” Walter owned pipeline between MP 270 and the 18” MPOG mainline in MP 273 completed; first flow November 2017
- January 2020 – 6” Cantium owned pipeline between MP 144 and the 18 MPOG mainline in MP 144 completed; first flow June 2020
- October 2022 – 18” MPOG owned pipeline between an Anadarko owned sub-sea interconnect MP 289 and the 18” MPOG mainline in MP 268 completed