Good day Sir,

For the total combined loss (both P&I and H&M) you can put a figure of USD $40 million.

Regards
David

Good Morning CAPT Ireland,

Firstly, I hope you are doing well and staying safe this holiday season sir and getting some well-deserved time off.

I was wondering if you could help me with identifying the damage value for the Hoegh Xiamen fire? The PII's thus far have not been able to give me an approximate dollar value, however I know that with your association with the P&I club you might be of more assistance. I simply need the number for the report I am writing. If you could please let me know what the dollar value is or pass this correspondence on to anyone who would know I would be deeply grateful.

Happy holidays and hope all is well.
