

MEMORANDUM FOR RECORD

Heidi Kemner
Air Safety Investigator
Eastern Region Aviation

May 12, 2020

Subject: ERA20CA176
Who: Danny Cox – FAA Inspector

In a telephone conversation, Inspector Cox stated the following:

- There was no smell of fuel at the accident site.
- Both fuel tanks were breached and there was no evidence of fuel on the ground.
- Both pilots agreed that they ran out of fuel. However, by their calculations they should have had 1 hour left.
