In a telephone conversation with the partner of the pilot, she stated that the pilot told her that he was going to fly to the Ryan Field Airport (RYN), Tucson, Arizona, do some touch and go [takeoff and landings], and return.

She stated that on the previous Friday, he had complained of having food poisoning, and he had diarrhea and vomited. She said that he has an occasional glass of wine but had not consumed any alcohol since about Friday. She stated that he documents his blood pressure and temperature daily and kept the information in a log.
