

Eric M. Gutierrez
Air Safety Investigator
Western Pacific Region

Date: June 20, 2024

Subject: WPR24LA207, Memorandum for Record

Contact: Sergeant Jeff Andriese, California Highway Patrol (CHP), Central Division Air Operations

The following is a synopsis of the information provided by Sergeant Andriese in an e-mail correspondence.

According to Sergeant Andriese, N3627N, a yellow in color, Piper, J3 cub, impacted terrain at an elevation 11,200 ft mean sea level (msl), 37.310160 - 118.719796. The pilot was identified as, Max Bandy, pilot cert # [REDACTED]. The pilot was transported by rescue helicopter to [REDACTED] Fresno, California. The accident site conditions as reported by the rescue crew:

- Rugged, remote, mountainous terrain
- Calm wind conditions
- Clear skies
- 12,500 Density Altitude
- 40 degrees Fahrenheit