PRIVACY NOTICE

AUTHORITY: 46 U.S.C. §3303; 46 U.S.C. §70102a; and 33 CFR Parts 155, 156 & 164

PURPOSE: To document the outcome of a Port State Control (PSC) compliance examination conducted by the U.S. Coast Guard.

ROUTINE USES: The U.S. Coast Guard Captain of the Port uses this information to ensure the results of a PSC examination is accurately documented in the Coast Guard's Marine Information for Safety and Law Enforcement database. For more information, please see DHS/ALL/PIA-008, Marine Information for Safety and Law Enforcement available at <https://www.dhs.gov/privacy>.

Disclosure: Furnishing this information is voluntary. However, the U.S. Coast Guard cannot properly document PSC examination activities without this valuable input.

APPEAL PROCEDURES

(Reference: Title 46, Code of Federal Regulations, Subpart 1.03)

Any person directly affected by a decision or wishing to dispute the validity of a PSC action or their association with an IMO reportable control action should follow the appeal procedures contained in 46 CFR 1.03 and as outlined below:

Detentions (Safety and/or Security) not related with RO/RSO/Charterer

- 1) Appeals must be submitted in writing within 30 days after the decision or action being appealed was made. The appeal must contain a description of the decision or action appealed and the reason why the decision or action should be set aside or revised.
- 2) All IMO reportable control action appeals must be submitted first to the cognizant Officer in Charge of Marine Inspection (OCMI) for reconsideration. The issuing unit's name/address is located in the bottom left corner of the Form A.
- 3) If not satisfied by the decision or action of an OCMI after requesting reconsideration, a formal appeal of that decision or action may be made within 30 days, via the office of the cognizant OCMI, to the District Commander of the district in which the office of the cognizant OCMI is located.
- 4) If not satisfied by the District Commander's decision or action on appeal, a formal appeal of that decision or action may be made within 30 days, via the office of the cognizant District Commander to Commandant (CG-CVC).
- 5) Commandant (CG-CVC) is final agency action on the appeal.

RO/RSO/Charterer Related Detentions (Safety and Security)

- 1) Any RO/RSO/Charterer wishing to dispute their association with a detention must make their appeal in writing within 30 days after the last administrative action is taken by the Coast Guard DIRECTLY to Commandant (CG-CVC) at the following address:

United States Coast Guard Headquarters
COMMANDANT (CG-CVC)
Attn: Port State Control Division
