Driving South bound on Tomoka Farms Rd when I recognized a wing from a white and blue small airplane going one way and the fuselage going/Falling ~~the~~ on another direction. As I keep driving I discovered on the west field of Tomoka Farms road in between the flea market and the bridge the scene of the accident. The small airplane looked very demolish with some debris around it and no sign of survivors. I climbed the fence shortly after calling 911 to see if there were survivors but unfortunately the body seemed very mutilated.
