RE: Fatal vehicle crash on December 16, 2022, on Interstate 64 in Williamsburg, VA:
NTSB #HWY23MH004

Dear Mr. Jordan,

The NTSB has developed a supplemental motor carrier factual report for the above referenced investigation. The report is ready for your technical review and comments. As with the earlier technical review, please review the document and ensure that the information contained within is accurate to the best of your knowledge.

Please submit your technical review comments no later than Monday, March 25, 2024. The NTSB will review all party member comments and provide written summary of the disposition of those comments, including whether any report changes will be made. Please remember that draft factual reports are for official use only until released in the NTSB public docket.

Sincerely,
