Heard friend Don yelling, checked to see what it's about. He pointed to falling plane. I only saw wing of plane falling through air (Plane body already was on ground i assume). Got in company truck to go check it out with co-workers. Got to sight of wreck Ran to wreckage to see if anyone was still alive. Called police while running to wreckage. One at wreckage saw no one was alive and then walked to street to see if So cops could get an accurate gps. Waited at road til they arrived. Police arrived

I was finishing lunch in the driver seat of the work truck. I had the door opened and I was sitting side ways in the seat. Then I heard a airplane engine, sounded like it was failing so I snatched to my left and seen the airplane going at a slow the went fast like speed ones the right wing broke off. the wing went right spinning in the air then the plane spun spiral like to the left. I didn't see a explosion because of the tree line.
